(2) The burden of proving the facts entitling any person to relief under this section shall lie on him.

(3) When any person has claimed and established his right to relief under this section, the commissioner may give him notice to apply to the discharge of such obligation as aforesaid the first moneys which shall come to his hands on behalf or for the use of the principal or beneficial owner as the case may be; and should he fail to comply with such notice he shall be deemed to be personally liable to discharge such obligation.

Provided that the local Government may, on application of the managers of the junior certified school, by order transfer the child to a senior certified school.

(4) Where a child or young person has been ordered by a court to give security under section 106 or section 118 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, and has failed to do so, the court which passed the order may order such child or young person to be sent to a junior certified school or a senior certified school respectively.

(5) Where prior to the commencement of this Act a youthful offender has been sentenced to transportation or imprisonment, the local Government may direct that in lieu of undergoing or completing such sentence, if under the age of sixteen years, he shall be sent to a senior certified school; and thereupon the offender shall be subject to all the provisions of this Act as if he had been originally sentenced to detention in a senior certified school.

detention.

24. The order in pursuance of which the youthful offender or child is sent to a certified school shall specify the time for which the youthful offender or child is to be detained in the school, being—as the court may require, to be responsible for the good behaviour of the youthful offender for any period not exceeding twelve months, and the court may in either case pass a further order that the youthful offender be placed under the supervision of a person named by the court.

26. (1) Where a child or young person is convicted of an offence punishable with fine and the court is of opinion that the case would be best met by the imposition of a fine, whether with or without any other punishment, the court may in any case, and shall if the offender is a child, order that the fine be paid by the parent or guardian of the child or young person, unless the court is satisfied that the parent or guardian cannot be found or that he has not conducted to the commission of the offence by neglecting to exercise due care of the child or young person.

(2) An order under this section may be made against a parent or guardian who, having been required to attend, has failed to do so, but, save as aforesaid, no such order shall be made without giving the parent or guardian an opportunity of being heard.

(3) Where a parent or guardian is directed to pay a fine under this section, the amount may be recovered in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

27. (1) When a child or young person is convicted of an offence of so serious a nature that the court is of opinion that no punishment which under the provisions of this Act it is authorized to inflict is sufficient, the court shall order the offender to be kept in safe custody in such place or manner as it thinks fit and shall report the case for the orders of the local Government.

28. Where a child or young person charged with any offence is tried by any court, and the court is satisfied of his guilt, the court shall take into consideration the manner in which, under the provisions of this or any other Act enabling the court to deal with the case, the case should be dealt with, namely, whether,

(2) Where under this Act a court is empowered to order a child to be sent to a junior certified school, the court, in lieu of ordering him to be so sent, may make an order for the committal of the child to suitable custody in the prescribed manner until he attains the age of sixteen years, or for any shorter period.

Power to commit child to suitable custody.

(3) Any police officer or other person authorized by the local Government in this behalf may bring before a court any person apparently of the age of fourteen or fifteen years so circumstanced that if he were a child he would come within one or other of the descriptions mentioned in sub-section (1) and the court if satisfied on inquiry of that fact and that it is expedient so to deal with him, may make an order for his committal to suitable custody in the prescribed manner until he attains the age of sixteen years, or for any shorter period.

(4) The court which makes an order committing a child or young person to suitable custody under this section may, in addition, order that the child or young person be placed under the supervision of a person named by the court.

30. Where the parent or guardian of a child proves to a court that he is unable to control the child, and that he desires the child to be sent to a junior certified school the court, if satisfied on inquiry that it is expedient so to deal with the child, and that the parent or guardian understands the results which will follow, may order him to be sent to any such school.

PART V.

Maintenance and Treatment of Persons sent to certified schools or committed to suitable custody.

31. (1) The court which makes an order for the detention of a youthful offender or child in a certified school or for the committal of a child or young person to suitable custody under this Act may make an order on the parent or other person liable to maintain the youthful offender, child or young person to contribute to his maintenance, if able to do so, in the prescribed manner.

33 (1) Where a youthful offender or child is detained in a certified school, the managers of the school may at any time with the consent of the chief inspector, or after the expiration of eighteen months of the period of detention without any such consent, by licence permit the youthful offender or child on the conditions prescribed in this behalf to live with any trustworthy and respectable person named in the licence willing to receive and take charge of him.

(2) Any licence so granted shall be in force until revoked or forfeited by the breach of any of the conditions on which it was granted.

(3) The managers of the school may at any time by order in writing revoke any such licence, and order the youthful offender or child to return to the school and shall do so at the desire of the person with whom the youthful offender or child is licensed to live. If the youthful offender or child refuses or fails to return to the school, the managers of the school may, if necessary, arrest or cause to be arrested the youthful offender or child and take him or cause him to be taken back to the school.

(4) When a licence has been revoked or forfeited and the youthful offender or child refuses or fails to return to the school, a court, if satisfied by information on oath that there is reasonable ground for believing that his parent or guardian could produce the youthful offender or child, may issue a summons requiring the parent or guardian to attend at the court on such a day as may be specified in the summons, and to produce the child, and, if he fails to do so without reasonable excuse, he shall, in addition to any other liability to which he may be subject under the provisions of this Act, be punishable with a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

MADRAS ACT No. XIII OF 1920.¹

[THE MULGENI RENT ENHANCEMENT ACT, 1920.]

[21st December, 1920.]

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the enhancement of rent on certain mulgeni tenures in the district of South Kanara, and to provide for the apportionment of the difference between the assessment at the settlement commenced in 1902 and that at the settlement of 1819; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title and local extent. 1. This Act may be called the Mulgeni Rent Enhancement Act, 1920, and shall be applicable to the whole of the district of South Kanara.

Mulgeni tenures to which the Act applies. 2. The provisions of this Act shall apply to mulgeni tenures which were created or acquired prior to a date to be fixed in this behalf by the Local Government in respect of each taluk or other local area, and in respect of which there is no contract in writing between the mulgar and the mulgenidar providing for the payment of enhanced assessment.

No order or decree of a civil court passed before this Act comes into force shall operate to prevent the application of the Act to any such tenure.

Definitions. 3. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context, ‘Assessment.’ (1) ‘assessment’ means the assessment to land revenue by Government.

‘Old assessment’ and ‘new assessment.’ (2) ‘old assessment’ and ‘new assessment’ mean, respectively, the assessment leviable before and after the revision of assessments which was commenced in 1902.

‘Mulgeni tenure.’ (3) ‘mulgeni tenure’ means a holding of land in perpetuity on a fixed rent, whether in money or kind or both, and includes tenures of the description known as ‘kayamgeni,’ ‘nigdigeni’ and ‘sub-mulgeni,’ but not ‘walawarg.’

‘Mulgar.’ (4) ‘mulgar’ means the owner of land held under mulgeni tenure, his heirs, representatives and assigns, and includes a mulgenidar who has granted a mulgeni lease to a sub-mulgenidar or sub-tenant, his heirs, representatives and assigns.

¹ For Statement of Objects and Reasons see Fort St. George Gazette, dated 29th June 1920, pages 1003–1004. For Proceedings in the Council see ibid., dated 30th November 1920, pages 1517–1520, and ibid., dated 25th January 1921, pages 358–361.

(5) 'mulgenidar' means a tenant of land held under 'Mulgenidar.' mulgeni tenure, his heirs, representatives and assigns, and includes a mortgage in possession from such tenant or from his heirs, representatives or assigns.

4. It shall be competent to the Local Government to confer all or any of the powers and to impose all or any of the duties conferred or imposed on the collector by this Act upon any other officer or person by notification in the official gazette.

Government may authorize other officers or persons to exercise powers of collector.

5. Any mulgar may make an application in writing to the collector to make an order for the enhancement of the rent payable to him under a mulgeni tenure.

Application for enhancement of rent.

Such application shall be in such form as the Local Government may prescribe and shall be accompanied by such fees as may be fixed by the Local Government.

6. On receiving an application under section 5, the collector shall hold an inquiry, and, if he is satisfied that the mulgeni tenure to which the application relates fulfils the conditions laid down in section 2, shall, in accordance with the provisions of the next following section, determine by an order in writing what enhancement, if any, shall be made in the rent payable in respect of the tenure.

Inquiry and determination of enhancement of rent.

7. (1) Where the rent is payable in money, it shall be enhanced by an amount not exceeding the whole of the excess of the new assessment over the old.

Principles on which enhancement is to be made.

(2) Where the rent is payable in kind, the increase in the assessment shall be divided between the mulgar and mulgenidar in the proportion borne by the old assessment to the new assessment on the land and the rent enhanced by an amount equal to the mulgenidar's share of the increase in the assessment.

(3) Where the rent is payable partly in money and partly in kind, the proportion that the money rent bears to the total rent shall be ascertained and the money rent enhanced by an amount not exceeding the same proportion of the increase in the assessment. The remainder of the increase in the assessment shall be apportioned in accordance with the principle stated in sub-section (2) and the mulgenidar's share shall be added to the rent :

Provided that, where good cause is shown for believing that an enhancement of the rent under sub-sections (1), (2) and (3) would be inequitable, the collector may make a fair and equitable settlement.

(4) The increase in rent determined under this section shall be in money.

Mode of as-certainment
of old assess-

8. In cases in which the old assessment on a mulgeni holding is not known, such assessment shall be calculated by apportioning the old assessment on the block of which it forms a part among the areas of which the block is made up according to the proportion which the settlement assessment of each such area bears to the settlement assessment of the whole of the block :

Provided that, when an apportionment between any such areas has already been made by the settlement officer, or by agreement between the parties concerned, such apportionment shall be accepted by the collector even though it does not conform to the provisions of this section.

Explanation.—‘ Block ’ in this section means any unit of area upon which a separate assessment was leviable immediately prior to the revision of assessments which was commenced in 1902.

Enhancement to remain in force until
is varied.

9. The enhancement in rent determined under section 6 shall remain in force unless and until the assessment is varied when, on application made by the mulgar or the mulgenidar, the collector may direct such further enhancement or such reduction as may seem equitable having regard to the nature and extent of the variation in assessment.

When revi-
effect.

10. Any revision of rent under this Act shall take effect from the commencement of the revenue year in which application is made for such revision.

Appeal.

11. From every decision under this Act by a collector or other officer or person empowered under section 4 an appeal shall lie to the district court.

The decision on appeal of the district court shall be final.

Reference to pending suits in civil courts at commencement of Act.

12. From and after the date on which this Act comes into force, no suit shall lie by any mulgenidar for the recovery of any sum paid before the said date in consequence of the increase in assessment, and all such suits as are pending in the civil courts on the date above referred to, in so far as they relate to the recovery of any such sums, shall be referred by the courts concerned to the collector for disposal under this Act. The collector shall thereupon proceed as if an application has been made to him under section 5 and shall treat the date of plaint as the date of application.

make rules.

13. The Local Government may, after previous publication, make rules for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act.

In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, the Local Government may make rules—

- (1) fixing the date specified in section 2 ;
- (2) prescribing forms and the mode of service of notice under this Act ;
- (3) fixing the fees, costs and charges to be paid in respect of proceedings under this Act ;

Provided always that movable property described in the proviso to section 60 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, shall not be liable to distraint.

(2) If for any reason the distraint, or a sufficient distraint, of the defaulter's property is impracticable, the president may prosecute the defaulter before a magistrate.
